

I HAVE A NOTE

YAHWEH SAYS IT:

What if I do have prophets today? What would be the purpose? People are confused in this season of the Church Age. They assume I would only speak to give out prophetic sayings as if everyone who hears from Me is enabled to take in deep revelation. Is it possible for Yahweh to have regular conversations with humans and not have it be a “Thus saith the Lord” or a judgment? Can I just have a talk? How did I engage Adam and Eve? I came and met with them. I spoke in paragraphs. We conversed back and forth.

Is it possible that Yahweh would enable this trait (this way of hearing) in humans today? I covered how people hear Yahweh in another book, but what is the purpose of this note? I want to share about the prophet’s spirit. Everyone cannot carry the weight of the prophet’s office placement. Let Me break it down: no course on Earth will train you to take on prophet-level surgings, for the surgings actually stem from Yahweh. I provide the prophet with the enablement to hear from Yahweh in a clear, sentence-form way. No course can enable you to hear Yahweh speak word-for-word if Yahweh does not enable you to hear Me.

Think of it this way: There’s a little two-year-old who has a general grasp of a parent saying something. They understand the general context of what is said. They understand basic commands. They understand the generalities of how to follow, but can they have an adult conversation, conversing with the parent as if they are mature? Never. No two-year-old will be able to converse as if they are an adult, no matter how gifted they are. They will never attain that level of conversation because the human brain will not fully develop until a certain time in the child’s growth.

Here is the complex comparison given in baby talk: No human will ever be able to understand and converse with Yahweh based on their human reasoning and wisdom. Human wisdom is unable to converse with Yahweh in spiritual matters. Spirit-to-spirit conversing. Who can know the mind of Yahweh by their own human understanding?

Here is what I do with prophets: I literally awaken their spirit to hear Me. I awaken the person. When anyone in Scripture hears Yahweh in a word-for-word context, whether the human is good or evil in their nature of action, Yahweh has to enable them to hear. Even a wicked king conversing with Me has to be enabled. I stripped this way of hearing from the Church, the whole Body, and that stripping has made it where all these church scholars are fumbling around, trying to figure out what I am saying.

For anyone to hear Me in a word-for-word plan today, not general leading and following, there must be an awakening of their spirit. I am the only One who can awaken a prophet, for their novice training depends on it. Book knowledge is not enough to prepare a real prophet; active engagement is a mandatory requirement. Hearing other humans share their experiences in walking with Me will not impart those required prophet traits.

Why is there no prophet training mentioned in the New Testament? How come there are no instructions on how to train prophets? Because only Yahweh can train actual prophets. Granted, you can get spiritual encouragement from those you work with. You can receive mentorship to do the work of the Kingdom, but when it comes to a prophet, drinking Yahweh's enablement to do a task, no other human can enable an actual prophet of Yahweh.

No human can give out prophet traits without Yahweh's enablement. Yahweh would have to say I am going to share those traits and enable someone to taste those same measures. But no human can call someone up and say, "Hey, I want to train you to be like me, and here you go, here are some of these prophet traits." Yahweh must vet a prophet to do the work of the Kingdom. Yahweh must enable the hearing.

And here is why people are confused today. They say, "I should be able to learn how to hear Yahweh." How can you? You're in the Church. And then they say, "I have the Great Holy Spirit in my life, which means I can hear Yahweh just as if I am a prophet of old." Be careful of this way of thinking. The Great Holy Spirit monitors how the gifts are given out. The Great Holy Spirit enables one to walk in the gifts He distributes as He wills. You cannot make the Great Holy Spirit do anything. No one will ever, while on this earth, be able to drink Yahweh's wisdom based on their own terms. Yahweh has to enable the way to converse with Yahweh in this way.

And stop saying that they think they are special because they can hear Yahweh, and you are not able to. Remember, it is Yahweh who brings the way to hear His great will, and no human can activate their enablement to hear. Stop writing these books about all these steps to hearing from Yahweh. You cannot make Yahweh talk to you. You cannot make Me bend to your declaring and decreeing. You cannot force Me to give you anything. This is a hard lesson.

And stop saying that all these fake Christians are going to get a house and a car and land, and health and wealth. Stop declaring what I did not say. Stand up for the truth. What prophet out there is able to say what they think the people would want to hear? If I solely want to talk about judgment, is that wrong? Am I not a Judge? I, Yahweh, will judge in the end. I am ready to bring forward how Yahweh's prophets of Scripture actually were. And I will bring forward two very powerful prophets in the end days, as mentioned in the Book of Revelation.

Did I stop talking? Maybe. Maybe I do not talk with you.
