

PROPHETS AND PROPHECY —INTRODUCTION

April 29, 2024

2:22 p.m.

YAHWEH YIELDS THE ENTIRE INTRODUCTION. HERE ARE YAHWEH'S SPOKEN WORDS:

Seersgate, can Yahweh give actual proof that the office of the prophet is here this day? Does manifesting a sign gift yield the needed evidence that Yahweh is involved and that a person speaks for Yahweh? What is a standing way that proves Yahweh's involvement in creation? Would I need to bring Heaven down to earth as the needed yielding of proof? I do not need to bring any fire down from Heaven. What Yahweh needs to bring forward is My covenant with a servant who will walk in My provision, protection, and great power.

Having a covenant with Yahweh is yielded to all Christians. Salvation is a covenant geared (centered) on bringing in the lost, keeping them under the Body plan in Christ, governed by the Great Holy Spirit. The Body of Christ, known as the Church, operates under governing orders in Yahweh, laid out in the New Testament compilation of Scripture. The parts of the Bible are set up as two main outlets: the old covenant and the new covenant. Both parts are ultimately governed by Yahweh. And Yahweh uses His agents, speakers, and lowered governors under His ultimate governing to say or give out Yahweh's plan to steer or give out course adjustments that will have the Church or the Body or those of the old covenant kept in a plan of moving forward that yields (bends) to how Yahweh governs.

Yahweh always existed, and Yahweh King Jesus always governed all created beings. King Jesus is God, and before taking on flesh, He held the glory of the Father (John 17:5). Yahweh is God, and Yahweh King Jesus bled (Acts 20:28) and bought the Church with His own blood. Yahweh is the One who yields these words. How can this be so? Every Kingdom citizen is joined to King Jesus in a spiritual way through the blood of King Jesus. No one can attain eternal life based on their works or deeds. Yahweh's blood covers and gives a person who eats King Jesus' flesh and drinks His blood eternal life (John 6:53-57).

Jesus is Yahweh. God the Father is Yahweh. And the Great Holy Spirit is Yahweh. Three but only one God, a Godhead. Three distinct, not changing modes. The Father isn't the Son. The Great Way is not the Great Holy Spirit. The Father is Spirit and never bled or took on flesh. And the Great Way (King Jesus) can be blasphemed, but the Great Holy Spirit will not be able to allow it without a person dealing with no way to receive forgiveness (Matthew 12:31-32). Yahweh King Jesus forgives these evil dealings, but calling what the Great Holy Spirit does as the work of Satan causes Yahweh to bring a weighing. Watch out and seek Yahweh's way.

The powerful Yahweh can create by saying a word. Can a human say a word and bring forward anything? Yet they say they are like God, made to speak and bring things forward. There is no mortal who can speak a word and create it—the word manifested into a natural thing. Yahweh is the only Creator, and saying a phrase will not make Yahweh bend and do any human's will. No one can make Yahweh do any plan. The outline of prayer, how Yahweh gave it, is a standing order for communicating with Yahweh. The Lord's prayer, they say. Is there any declaring the plan of a human in that prayer? Humble yourself before a mighty God. Let Me weigh it, your prayers of calling out to Yahweh.

I can hear you within. There is no action that is hidden from Yahweh. The dark is just as the daylight to Yahweh. No word spoken is hidden from Yahweh. There are no favorites in Yahweh's Kingdom. I care for all of My Kingdom citizens in the same manner. What can a human bring to Yahweh that is of great worth? A soul. A soul won for the Kingdom, brought out of darkness into light, a new creation. Still, no human is a lowercase god who can make Yahweh bend to their will. What is Yahweh looking for in His children? The way of clean hands and a pure heart. Can you give Me that way, dear reader?

THE WAY OF GRACE

What does grace do today? People think that grace gives them a free plan to live in continual sinful ways, never turning into a clean way of living. They say that there is grace to cover their sinful living those six days a week and do a new repentant way on the day they spend an hour or two with Me. Who do they think they fail? Do they fail because of Yahweh? Of course not. They do not surprise Me in their lukewarm living, yet they want to hear Me and think they say Yahweh's way of Kingdom living in a prophetic saying.

Here is how prophet sayings come forward from a real prophet: walking in prophet traits that stem from Yahweh. No real prophet in the Prophet office lacks prophet traits. Yahweh did not get rid of the Prophet office. See it. Yahweh's silence or way of being quiet doesn't imply an ending to all prophetic sayings. See it. If you sit next to a person who speaks and then sits quietly, would you say they can no longer give you a word in their yielding? Or would you say maybe they are quiet for the moment yet still able to speak when the needed plan to speak is given?

Take a look at how Yahweh gives quiet seasons, even hundreds of years in waiting to speak (as seen in the quiet season from the Old Testament to the New), and then Yahweh brings forward John the Baptist that awakens a new plan, a preparation for the Messiah, King Jesus. Yahweh will not need to yield prophets and prophetic sayings in eternity. But quiet moments are permitted now in the Church Era.

Here is why I do not back all of these so-called prophets who say they speak in the name of Yahweh: They lack an office placing, a covenant agreement that gives them permission to speak a word from Yahweh that Yahweh must bring forward in natural living. It is accurate to say that general prophecy in a church setting is made for building up the Church Body, edifying the people. What is the prophet's role? To yield into the earth whatever saying that Yahweh gives them, and all that Yahweh says will not comfort you. I will bring judgments, death sentences, curses, and punishments. I will bring correction, rebuke, and anger by turning My face against the one who moves against Me. I will judge. And I use prophets to speak these real ways.

The way of these prophets in their calling themselves it—they go to their church, itinerant minister, and local media outlet to validate them and gain their title and their position. But Yahweh didn't call them. Someone can say to you, "Yes, you are a prophet!" Does that mean that Yahweh will take the person's saying as a way of standing proof and yield an agreeing way?

Yahweh MUST say you are a prophet and impart prophet traits to yield forward a person who can engage in covenant work. Yahweh must call a person forward. There will not be an active prophet who isn't given the office straight from Yahweh. No church leader can make any turn into a real prophet, for the prophet traits stem from Yahweh. Saying you are this way or that way will not make you become that way. You cannot force Yahweh to make you a prophet.

With grace in an active place, they can speak what they feel I would say, and they would not be killed when stating something that Yahweh did not say. People feel and think and hope their way into saying something, but Yahweh didn't say it first. It is their saying, but they do not carry great power to bring their saying into natural ways. And grace lets them live another day to say more sayings that Yahweh didn't say. And every day, many people lie in the name of Yahweh, and they think that Yahweh gives approval because I did not punish them. But grace hides My anger.

If you told your friend about something that is coming, and you say that another person said it, would the saying stand, and would you have some person believe you? Maybe.

And if you tell more sayings to your friend and your words never come forward and are proven false, how long should your friend stand with you, saying that you speak the truth? Some friends will stay near you but will note they cannot believe you. And other friends may say they want no further engagement with you due to all of your sayings under a false plan.

And so, what should be done with a person who tells their church people that they hear from Yahweh, but everything they say that Yahweh says is unreliable? Why are church people so passive towards a person who lies in Yahweh's name but cannot give forgiving ways when they are directly wronged? What grace has done—it has placed saying anything from Yahweh as a common plan, lower than what they say to gain honor in their groups.

Weigh Yahweh's words. Honor what Yahweh says in Scripture as authoritative. And weigh the plan that if Yahweh chooses to say anything today, you must test what you hear against Yahweh's sayings from Scripture by the leading of the Great Holy Spirit. Just because man says they "feel Me" and "feel power" doesn't mean they hear Me. Feeling anything is not an actual gauge of hearing Me say anything.

The blanket covering of grace also dampens how the Church Body engages Yahweh. The way that Yahweh engaged the creation in the old part of the written Bible isn't how Yahweh engages a person in the days of the Church Era. The Church Era, as an entire plan, entered ways of hearing and quiet times. Reformations and church denominational splits were not always centered (brought forward) on their ability to hear from Yahweh. Oppressive church leaders carried sparks that brought catalyst actions that initiated a new plan. And with all under grace, there is a misuse of speaking for Yahweh because they do not fear being slain for telling lies in My great name. And what if Yahweh strips grace from the world?

THE AGE OF THE ANTICHRIST, A GRACE-STRIPPED WAY

The era of time when Satan's world leader governs will not be a time of hope, faith, and love. The antichrist carries Pure Evil, a demon prince in Satan's kingdom that thrives on tormenting the human. Murder and Pure Evil will bring forward a man who has no compassion or love but wants self to be in an exalted placing. No world religion is catered (or molded) to resemble what goes on today. No one will lead the world with a current worship of their form of deity. Satan will not give the world a free will way. Satan will yield only his way as a god to be exalted.

Where is there a placing for Sunday or Saturday church services in this time of terror? Where are you going to put up a social advertisement, telling your neighbor to seek Yahweh when demons walk the earth in materialized ways? "See that demon looking at you; go tell your neighbor that Yahweh loves them." —that is not how the Great Tribulation will move as.

While you church folks are saying that God loves them and has a "wonderful plan" for their individual way, see how the Hell opens its mouth wide to bring in all the unsaved sitting in church buildings, thinking that saying a certain phrase in a prayer did put them in right standing with Yahweh. Will someone tell the people to repent? A spreading out of grace makes church people think they are in right standing with Yahweh. Beware.

Wow, servant. Wow. I will not let grace cover the world and pour out great judgment in the same natural time.

WHAT IS A REAL PROPHET?

A real prophet is a servant called by Yahweh and imparted prophet traits to be able to work in a delegated work sphere as given by Yahweh. Spiritual stripping, wilderness training, dealing with fear, rejection and all lowercase gods must be dealt with. There cannot be a lowercase god who takes the place of Yahweh; this includes putting other humans or one's own body as a place of honor and worship.

A real prophet will bring course correction, yielding what Yahweh gives in that moment. A real prophet out of the spiritual cave will carry a active covenant agreement to invoke Yahweh. This way of invoking will not necessarily look like Scripture, but to invoke is to inquire and ask Me what should take way in that situation.

My prophets cannot declare of their will and expect Me to go and do their bidding. A prophet must ask Yahweh for the will to follow and push it forward. I say the message to the servant, and the servant yields the message to the intended audience. But never will I bend to pleasing a prophet's whim.

Servant, they think that being a servant is an easy task. Would they feel that same way if they knew of how Yahweh trained you? Would they like being visited by witches, warlocks, Satan, and many levels of demons and take in torment to learn how the enemy takes in the prey? Would they take pleasure in hearing their favorite church leaders say they dabble in New Age and are misled due to saying they hear Yahweh and see spirit beings? How would they feel if they had to give up their favorite filth that they watch on media outlets and keep clean hands and a pure heart before Yahweh? Would they take pleasure in telling their friends and those they admire to turn from wicked living, repent, and take on a new way?

Hearing Yahweh is but a taste of prophet living. In the prophet, there is no shut off from living in the spirit way. Yahweh engages a real active servant, day or evening. Even during sleeping, there is a plan where Yahweh says I need to give out a will into the earth, and you are to share it. Yahweh puts character stripping within a prophet so they would learn to tame their lips and not speak casually. A prophet will not be able to stay in an active placement if there is continual going their way over obeying what Yahweh states.

And Yahweh uses lessons to give shape to a servant, a plan that is definitely different than any early church way. The office of a prophet will drink of the old way, centered on serving Yahweh with clean ways in holy living. It goes against the grain of grace, this holy living that Yahweh pushes. And Yahweh will not sugarcoat to make a prophet feel good. Yahweh woos early, drawing the novice with spiritual treats of seeing and hearing and tasting of what is to come. The people say of what a groomed prophet you will be and give you a little boost in your ego. And then Yahweh takes you to the wilderness and makes you turn within, enabled to turn and tell those same boosters of their evil way.

See, reader. The gift of prophecy is not the office. Here, you will learn a way of seeing from Yahweh's view, and I will not give a way to make you feel that you carry all of these prophet living ways. Know where you are in training with Yahweh. Are you still in novice ways? In a cave being stripped of the old way? Or are you in a transition from novice to active work? Remember, I will not back you while in a spiritual cave, but I will send real tester warfare and rejection and power messages to see if you will work your duties and not desert Me.

The real prophet will stand with Yahweh. It's how the training takes you, a bending to My way that brings breaking within, and you see that Yahweh always knows better. Let Me break you and remake you into a vessel who can say what Yahweh gives even on pain of death. Are you able to stand with Yahweh even against this world? Here is a servant's way of training yielded in her book called The Altar, granting a way to taste a sample of her cave training with Yahweh. But what will Yahweh bring you in these training notes in this mini book here? Yahweh wants you to learn.
