

"I AM ANGRY" —YAHWEH

YAHWEH SPEAKS HERE:

These are not in My governing order. Both are not connected to Yahweh's way of drinking. They do not have Yahweh. Have I made this clear? You are looking to have two unsaved be a running plan. What would govern a nation? Is it how the candidate speaks? Is it who they stand with outside of the political arena? Yahweh had many wicked rulers governing His people, some of which could not be planned in human ways. Yahweh had to kill off some.

Seersgate, what is causing My anger? What is driving Yahweh to speak out? I already said that _____ was not under Yahweh and not a David way. And it's obvious that _____ is a wicked plan who is tricking churches into siding with her based on her color. What option should the Church stand with? The one who says, "Yahweh will prevail."

Here is what is causing the flaring up of anger. I hear people call themselves a "Christian," yet they are afraid to say Jesus is the only way to Heaven. Playing how she has some black genes in her is making people take her into their space. Others take him as their lowercase god and put him in Yahweh's place. My anger is in how no one would expect it, the deception, and they are angry that these fake Christians will take in a real God-mocker, welcome her, and give her a placement of a woman of Yahweh. No woman of Yahweh would brazenly spit upon Yahweh in continual ways.

If My people would now take a look at what is coming, they would be more prepared for the Age of the Antichrist. What plan would have taken way if I poured out great wrath? Instant death for taking a step within Yahweh's way and spitting on My great name.

Instant death. But grace hides My anger, and people feel I am slow, complacent, and uncaring about what is taking way.

In the days of old, I had to keep a great distance from the people. Even Moses could not get too close, but he came close enough to take on a glowing from being near Me. But now, with the blood of King Jesus, the grace plan covers up the way, showing a way of anger removed. Yet the same God deals with people living in this current placement as was in the days of Moses and giving of the Ten Commandments.

There is a great breaking ahead. There will be a preparation coming to prepare the world for the Second Coming. I will yield the Age of the Antichrist. I will strip grace. Great anger will pour out upon the earth in seals and bowls, and judgments. It must happen. The candlesticks will be stripped away from churches that pretend to stand with Yahweh. Dens of demons will lead. A fake way will be under the way of the church service, yet dead ways without Yahweh will come out of their messages. What should come? Prepare for a way of greater plans from Yahweh in visitations. There, spiritual torment will give way to calling out to Me to come and set you free.

What human will have a covering when they make a claim against the One True God? Who can protect them? Who can come and offer a defense when they spit on Yahweh? This is not about who to pick as your fake Christian nation figurehead. This is who you are: one who places lowercase gods in the place of where Yahweh should be. My anger stems from those church ways that say Yahweh is not the One to stay with.

He who endures.

Only one way is coming: the Age of the Antichrist, leading into the Second Coming. And every human will stand and face Yahweh. It's all coming forward.

Don't expect the reprobate to stand with Yahweh. Don't expect your office workers to stand in the gap and place Jesus in a first-place view in the eyes of the world. What must take way? A catalyst. Yahweh's view: Yahweh sees into eternity. Stand with Yahweh. Worship Yahweh. Read the written Word in context. Pray that Yahweh's will leads and that you are able to stay with Yahweh.
