

WHAT IS GOD REALLY LIKE?

SUSANNA OPENS THE DISCUSSION:

Which “god” are we referring to? I worship Yahweh, also known as I AM, from Exodus chapter 3. My reasoning for coming to you today is to build up your faith and to encourage you. When you know that there is a God out there who may or may not look or resemble what you hope, it shapes your perspective a little bit better.

I talk a lot about demons, Satan, and spiritual warfare, mainly because my training gave me those outlets so I can be aware of the enemy’s plan. Yahweh gives training to prepare us for what is ahead, and based on what requirement is needed, He will ensure you are ready ahead of time. He does not give you more than you can bear according to His written word.

No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and He will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation He will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.

—1 Corinthians 10:13 ESV

But that refers to temptation, for God will provide a way of escape. But what about knowing Yahweh, His nature, and how Yahweh engages the general public? Is Yahweh distant? Does He care when problems come?

We are not guaranteed wealth, health, or happiness. We are told to endure to the end (Matthew 24:13). We are told that we are more than conquerors in Christ (Romans 8:37-39). We are told we will be persecuted for our faith for even associating with Christ King Jesus (2 Corinthians 4:7-12, Matthew 10:22, John 15:19–20).

The world will persecute you, including those you may know—all for standing with King Jesus. Persecution is a part of the Christian walk and should be expected. But what about knowing God? What is He really like?

If you look in the Gospels (the first four books of the New Testament), you will gain an understanding of how Yahweh King Jesus walked the earth and how He carried out a three-year preparation phase and ministry for twelve disciples, preaching repentance and how the Kingdom is at hand. You will learn how the disciples worshipped Yahweh King Jesus, and King Jesus did not refuse that worship. They called Him the Son of God (Matthew 14:22-33, Matthew 16:13-20, John 20:24-29).

Pay careful attention to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to care for the church of God, which He obtained with His own blood.

—Acts 20:28 ESV

Now, some would say, “That is not how it really looks because Jesus was born. How could He be God?” If you review the Hypostatic Union, there would be clarity as to how this is possible: King Jesus being both God and man, carrying two natures.

Here is how the “Got Questions” website breaks it down, and this is an accurate representation:

“Jesus’ two natures, human and divine, are inseparable. Jesus will forever be the God-man, fully God and fully human, two distinct natures in one Person. Jesus’ humanity and divinity are not mixed, but are united without loss of separate identity. Jesus sometimes operated with the limitations of humanity (John 4:6, 19:28) and other times in the power of His deity (John 11:43; Matthew 14:18-21). In both, Jesus’ actions were from His one Person. Jesus had two natures, but only one personality.”

SUSANNA CONTINUES:

Now, to many people, King Jesus comes over as a loving God who accepts all sin and lets "love" take over, allowing people to do whatever they feel is the right way. Here is the problem with that: at the end of all things being settled, it is this very same God King Jesus, who will judge all, open the seals mentioned in Revelation, and come back and slay His enemies (2 Corinthians 5:10, Revelation 20:11-15, Revelation 5:1-14).

You may wonder, "Wow, how can there only be this fake kind of human love that social media, churches, and influencers have presented?" Maybe those in those groupings are afraid to speak up and say the entire news. One portion says God is only love, but only looking at the love side of Yahweh would lead you to think that He tolerates sinful living, which is not so.

Now, go back and look at how King Jesus is God. God always existed. Jesus referred to Himself as I AM in John 8:58, saying He placed Himself on the same level as the God mentioned in Exodus 3:13-15. Pay close attention. This same God existed in the days of Moses. This same God created all that is seen (Colossians 1:15-20). This same God is returning, and one day, He will place everything in order (Revelation 1:7, 1 Corinthians 15:24-28). King Jesus is more than a man. King Jesus always existed but as Yahweh (I AM). Yahweh carries that same anger that people hate to read about in the Old Testament from what they call a mean God (Leviticus 10:1-3).

What happens now? Why are you not being slain instantly for your irreverent actions? Why can you go around sinning heavily against Yahweh, blaspheming His name without being instantly dealt with? Grace. What if grace is removed? We would all deal with the potent holiness of Yahweh.

What happens in today's church gatherings? They are not dealing with the potent surging from Yahweh, for if they did, there would be many dead found lying in the churches, for sin is rampant, but due to the grace factor, there is no true gauge of Yahweh's anger. The same God you hate to read about from days of old carries the same traits, the same nature, presence, and beautiful glory. He lets you speak your ill will and judgments against how He governs. He lets you live, gives you air to breathe, while in all this time, records everything you do.

He sees how you decree and declare and call yourself a god, but He will judge you for making yourself as a god, for you cannot create anything. Just as Satan fell for wanting to be like Yahweh, so will you, for there is only one True God. Yes, God is love. But God is also holy and righteous and must be revered. If you say you serve Yahweh, you must see that He wants to give you an enduring way to live in a fallen world and the strength to endure to the end.

Please stop telling Yahweh what you want in a commanding way. Learn to pray (Matthew 6:5-14 ESV). Petition Yahweh. Call out to Him in your time of need (Proverbs 3:5-6). Yahweh is not your genie, bringing your will forward. He hears you. And you say, "If God is real and really does care, why does He allow so much painful living to take away? If God loves me, doesn't He see that I am in pain? And if He is watching me in pain, how can He be so evil to sit there and do nothing about it?"

(14) Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. (15) For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. (16) Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

—Hebrews 4:14-16 ESV

YAHWEH IS SPEAKING:

I want to speak now, servant. People do not know how to deal with painful ways from the nature of seeing it My way. They look at death as the ending, when within My view, one in Christ comes home (2 Corinthians 5:6-8). Death to a true Kingdom citizen brings full healing. I reveal love differently than humans would. If I love My Son, would I allow Him to be killed? I knew there needed to be a Perfect Sacrifice for sinful living, a pure way to bring reconciliation between God and man. And I knew that King Jesus would rise from the dead. I already knew how the whole story would go.

It's not that I don't have power to overrule all actions on Earth, stop evil ones, or prevent bad things from happening. What if I told you that I see the ending and can look into eternity? What if I told you that I know of those who will take in My free salvation plan? People think that just because I already know would inherently remove free will. But what if there are both? What if both opposing church sides have partially correct answers? What if I do turn the heart of a human king any way I would will?

What if I also say to call upon the name of the Lord, and you will be saved? What if I say to go and share the Gospel? What's the point of that? Because they have to hear it. The Gospel must come. Look at how King Jesus preached. Was it just given to one? Weren't seeds pushed out all over? What if I am already building mansions? What if I say that there is a preparation taking place for those who are coming home to be with Me? This natural world will one day be no more. I can reshape human clay. I can rewrite My will. I can bring a new way, and I will!

One day, all tears will be wiped away. But these promises are for My children. All those who say they are Christian will not spend eternity with Me in My presence under this placement. Calling yourself one of Mine is not a guarantee. Your actual spiritual fruit (your way of living) must show that you are. You cannot contradict My nature and follow Satan's way and say that we walk together. You cannot worship Satan and Yahweh. Stand for one or the other.

THE GREAT HOLY SPIRIT IS SPEAKING DIRECTLY:

I reveal the real truth, not what the people say is their way of viewing details. Yahweh has spoken. I am here on the earth and within every true Kingdom citizen, but can I keep you from sinning? No human leads a sinless life, for all sin and all fall short of the glory of God (Romans 3:21-26). Why would Yahweh be within you, a follower of Christ? To lead you and guide you into all truth (John 14:1-31).

KING JESUS SEALS IT:

I will show more of My will in the coming season.
